

Siegburn

Dear readers, we've come to the part you've been waiting for.

Me too. I was delayed because of the problems I already told about in Razel son's SS, so I won't say it anymore.

What I will say is that I apologize that I took almost two weeks for this.

Chapter 90 is where it all ends, as we finally reach the halfway point of this volume.

I'm sure you will enjoy it.

I leave a link of mega of the chapter with illustrations of other novels to better generate the imagination:

After returning to the hotel from the wedding the girls did.

Barbara said to me to go ahead and go to the hot springs in the room.

Leila was sent fishing under the excuse that she would be like this for hours.

Amy is still a non-show.

I would worry if she was weak.

Tomorrow I will make it up to her.

I changed into my swimsuit and waited outside.

Due to a magic crystal in the lamps is that the cold at this time of night doesn't affect us.

I was about to fall asleep when they called out to me.

"Razel, we're ready."

Eli called to me, as I turned over.

I stood with my eyes wide open.

There was something I forget every so often.

I have a harem.

One that I already had relations with.

My life was great as far as my eyes could see.

In front of me were the girls wearing erotic bikinis.

Eli and Lily were the only ones with cat ears.

Their bikinis were tight, but molded the curves of their bodies.

The others were similar, emphasizing their bodies, but not to an erotic level like the heroine and villainess.

The weapons of mass destruction were undoubtedly those three.

Cordelia, Yukihome and Barbara were wearing a bikini similar to the skin of a cow.

Because of their huge breasts, they were pretending to be one.

Only Barbara wore cow ears to complete the outfit.

I could feel all my blood rushing through my lower body.

Barbara walked over.

The way she approached me was so sensual it was mesmerizing.

She was only inches away from me.

I could feel her breathing.

For some reason Barbara's eyes like theirs seemed to form a heart.

It reminded me of those adult anime where the women were slaves to pleasure.

Barbara grabbed my swimsuit.

"Alright. It's time to start the fun that every harem should have."

"Yay!"

As she pulled my swimsuit down, as if it were a twig moved out of the way and back into place.

My manhood was fully erect just watching them.

I could feel how they were all staring at it.

Barbara's hand slid straight down to take it gently.

As she grabbed it, she rubbed it up and down not caring that her daughter was watching.

Truth be told, neither do I. My head is stuck on finally being able to do it with Barbara as my wife.

"Razel-kun, you know, even since Eli accepted our love I've really hoped to do this with you. My body desires to be one with my husband."

"Do you want to put this inside me?"

Barbara sounded obscener than she was.

I was really looking forward to it.

I turned around, and I could look at her beauty.

Her beautiful, huge, missile-like breasts were staring at me.

The pink, fleshy nipple was as big as a baby's hand.

I lost count of how many times I sucked on her breasts, satiating my desire to have those milk tanks all to myself.

Seeing me opening my mouth to bite them, she lifted them with her arm and with the other put her finger in my mouth.

"N~o~."

"Don't be hasty bad boy."

"There are many girls who also want your love. In fact, I'll let them go first, then you can get to the bottom of my womb like you like to do."

With that mischievous smile, she turned me around.

Ahead of me were Cordelia and Celes.

Celes' breasts were as big as a pineapple. Firm, hard and especially pointy at the nipples.

While Cordelia had breasts as big as melons.

They were soft and best of all, she had inverted nipples.

Meaning I could play with her as much as I wanted.

Their bodies were no slouches, slim waists, big meaty butts, everything about her was what I would no doubt expect from a men's dating game, or maybe an erotic game.

In any case, I'm happy with the situation.

Seeing me approach, they lifted their breasts.

"Here honey. As a good wife, it's my duty to make my man happy."

"Razel-sama, be sure to enjoy yourself, as your personal servant it is my duty to please you."

I lunged forward.

I grabbed them both firmly.

I pressed their bodies against me and removed the cloth covering their nipples.

I had them in my mouth, before I did what I was supposed to do I said.

"Thank you for the food."

First I began kissing the area around Cordelia's nipple.

I massaged her breasts as Barbara taught me.

Barbara taught me that when dealing with a woman with breasts like hers, I should be as gentle as possible.

Like I was making pizza dough.

I rubbed.

I groped.

I squeezed those breasts every so often.

I could see them moaning with excitement.

Their red cheeks showed they liked it.

Cordelia's inverted nipples were poking out.

A beautiful pink, fleshy mushroom looked up at me.

Seeing it stick out, I devoured it.

"Ahhh."

They began to moan as I devoured their breasts.

My mouth introduced the nipples of both of them, my hands moved around their slender waists.

I groped their bellies and inserted my finger into their navels, that was what women liked.

It was different than with the girls.

Where it was just take the bottom off and go for it.

It was simpler that, but apparently older women are different.

After being like that for a while, my fingers went to their bottoms.

I could touch the same kind of wetness you feel when you stick your finger into a pit.

Celes said to me.

"Honey, I want to go first. I've been holding on for a long time."

I looked at Cordelia to ask, her gaze was blank, but she still answered.

"For me go ahead, I want us to kiss."

We walked over to a couch protected with defensive magic, so we could stain it and nothing would happen to it.

As I sat down, Cordelia positioned herself behind me.

She placed her breasts on my back and began to massage me.

While Celes bent down and ran her tongue across her lips, as if it was the most delicious thing in the world.

She grabbed my twin jewels and then the wand.

"Bon appetit."

She began kissing the tip, the sensation was wonderful.

She would caress it with her tongue, gradually she would give it with intensity and it would be light again.

Celes kept kissing it, but when I told her I wanted her to go all the way in, she smiled and with one thrust she went all the way in.

I could feel how I was coming all the way down her throat.

"Honey, how does it feel?"

She asked me as she licked her tongue all over my shaft that entered her mouth.

She massaged the twins as she sucked in a way you would never expect to see from a refined woman like her.

"Razel-sama, don't ignore me."

As Cordelia rubbed her breasts against my back.

She wanted affection too.

I stuck out my tongue and we began to kiss.

"Cordelia."

"Ahn, Razel-sama."

On one side Celes using her mouth to make me feel good, and on the other side Cordelia's soft, luscious mouth.

I grabbed Celes' head and pulled it away, saw a bridge of saliva dangling between the tip of her mouth and my rod.

"I want to put it in."

She looked at me like she was beside herself.

"Yes..."

She turned around and pointed her huge ass at me.

With Cordelia at my side, I said to Celes.

"Let's begin!"

I inserted it in one thrust.

"That feels great, Celes!"

"Ahhnnnnnn~."

It went all the way in her, I could feel the tip touch something.

Celes was starting to make a strange face, it was the face of a woman lost in pleasure.

With one hand I grabbed her ass and with the other I grabbed Cordelia.

It was paradise without a doubt.

My hips were moving forward and backward like music.

It was all about thrusting and bumping the huge ass that jiggled with each thrust.

I kissed Cordelia, the sensation of our tongues touching was heavenly.

But I want more.

I have so many women

I want more of them.

I don't want to stop.

I want to taste their bodies and leave my essence in each of them.

I want to feel alive, like I've never felt alive before.

I want to show this world that despite the fact that danger is just around the corner, I'm going to defeat it and feast on my women.

"R-Razel-kun... you're driving me crazy. I feel like you're going to rip my insides in two."

I was hitting Celes with all my might.

I wanted to now do it to Cordelia.

I wasn't planning on stopping.

So, I gave her the onslaught.

"Hiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiih~!"

With all my strength I grabbed that big ass and stuffed it like an air pump to a flat tire.

I managed to let it all out.

I should be out of energy, but my body won't give in.

Thanks to my stamina after so many beatings, I managed to hold on longer than normal.

I can go on all night if I want to.

I pulled it out.

I could see how from inside Celes the vital essence overflowed, the same one that came out of the tip of my wand.

I turned now to Cordelia who was doing something extremely satisfying.

"Nooo~."

She used her hands to grab one of Yukihiime's breasts.

She buried her mouth in the small nipple that was sticking out amidst so much flesh.

She was sucking intensely.

I approached and asked her.

"Do you like women too?"

She pulled her mouth off the soft nipple that looked like a button about to pop.

Cordelia's fingers were pressing intensely on that nipple, she wanted to bite it too.

"I was preparing it for you."

I said after hearing that.

"Thank you."

I stood up and pointed my rod in Yukihiime's face.

She was grim.

"It's big and looks threatening, but..."

She smiled and took it kindly.

She put it near her mouth.

"This is my savior's manhood, therefore, I accept it."

The warmth of Yukihome's mouth was different from Celes'.

Yukihome moved her tongue in a refined way.

It reminded me a bit of Eli when she did it, as she practiced in tea ceremonies, how to sip politely and taste and identify the spices they used.

So, she is very good at using her tongue.

Yukihome certainly does the same.

It's like combining a mother's affection with a hug after achieving success in life.

It's certainly heaven.

I put my hand on her head began to caress her and said.

"I really love having a demi-human as a girlfriend. It's like getting a reward that no one wants."

Yukihome took it out of her mouth to ask me.

"I always wanted to ask you this, do you like demi humans?"

I wanted to tell her that it was a silly question.

Demi-humans and humans are the same.

Sure, some live longer, have long pointed ears and also have tails.

But being someone categorized as ugly in their previous life and in this one, does that matter?

I mean, to me they're all beautiful, in fact, I did.

"I never cared about that if you are human or elf or half beast. I see all of you the same way."

"I don't care about the race, ethnicity, culture, skin color or past of the members of my harem, I only care that they want to be with me."

I also care a lot about the size of their breasts, but I'd better not say that.

It would be ruining the moment.

I've learned when to shut my mouth, I've certainly improved.

I noticed that Yukihiime's eyes shone with a radiant light.

She lifted her huge breasts and pressed them against me.

I felt like I died the instant she touches me.

It's like a soft and fleshy marshmallow hugging me.

"Do you like it?"

She asked as she used her breasts, I sat on the couch and let her make me relax.

But I forgot I wasn't the only one.

Cordelia attacked too.

She went straight for my nipple.

Apparently she had learned unnecessary things from Barbara.

"Tonight is supposed to be special. So we should make it special."

Cordelia really tried to make me cum faster.

It felt like what she was already doing with her breasts.

It's not fair I wanted to tell her.

But she reached out and played with them.

Yukihime used her huge breasts to make me come.

It was really pleasurable feeling.

Cordelia said to me as she played.

"You feel happy to have huge breasts like that don't you?"

"Then let me encourage you more."

"Yukihime-san, give me space please."

Yukihime gave Cordelia space and both of their breasts were now going to compress me.

This was a stimulating punishment.

They both put my rod in the middle of their breasts.

Their huge ripe fruits were attacking me mercilessly.

I could not escape.

It was a soft, fleshy prison which enveloped me and would not let me escape.

The tips of her nipples were not far behind.

They were touching my head and they really wanted me to explode.

Their nipples hit the head like a balloon.

While the trunk was being attacked by soft marshmallows.

To show how helpless I was, they used their tongues.

That was the final move.

All that combined with their saliva and playful movements made me grab their heads so that way.

When I shot everything, it fell on them.

"Cordelia! Yukihiime!"

"Pick it up!"

Here came my third shot.

Unlike with Celes, this time it was more powerful.

With this it would be hard for me to get happy again.

But my body was not going to give up.

I wanted a harem, and harems are a test of your manhood.

For a reason in all the doujinshis I read in my life about married women.

Dissatisfaction was the main danger, of course there was also the fact that those women were indeed sluts.

My harem is not.

But I will not leave a single one unsatisfied.

I said to both of them.

"Lie down and spread your legs."

They listened to me and laid a long towel on the floor.

There they lay down, spread their legs and two beautiful, pink, green and white petals lay in front of me.

"This is very embarrassing." (Yukihime)

"Go ahead, serve yourself." (Cordelia)

With those words I managed to get even harder than I was.

I approached Cordelia to do her first.

Without foreplay, I inserted it.

I could tell she liked it because she made a funny face after I inserted it.

Cordelia's insides were just like what you feel when you stick your arm under the bed.

Soft, but tight.

Cordelia didn't want to let me go.

So I was rough.

I turned her around without pulling it out, and kissed her while I used her ass to teach her a lesson.

She must not disrespect her master.

I made sure Cordelia got all the times she disrespected me.

She was now one of my women, but just for that alone I wasn't going to let this disrespect happen.

I gently took her arms and penetrated her insides like there was no tomorrow.

The feel of her ass slapping against my skin.

My rod reaching deep inside her.

Her breasts bouncing wildly.

The saliva from her mouth and mine being one.

I was in a situation where our hearts and bodies were one.

A few minutes passed and we changed positions.

I was going to finish.

I pulled it out, spread it over her breasts and face.

"Huh? Why did you pull it out?"

I replied before grabbing a bottle of water and hydrating myself.

"It's a punishment beforehand. I have to educate a bad maid."

I went for my next target.

But before I knew it.

"Razel~."

Eli hugged me from behind.

"What's wrong Eli?"

"I want it."

Her hand moved to my lower half.

She grabbed it.

Its hardness was still not hidden.

I removed her hand and replied without turning to look at her.

"I'll play with you soon, just wait."

When I said that, she said something weird.

"If you don't hurry, I'll actually do that I wasn't planning to do, but based on how anxious I am, maybe I'll experience my first kiss again."

I didn't understand what she meant, but I had to give them all pleasure.

I went to where Yukihiime was and found her lying down.

I was on my side, she touched her petal and with her fingers opened it.

"My savior, come inside me."

With those words, I did not hesitate to heed her.

I sat up and after lifting her legs, I inserted it.

Yukihiime's feeling was better than that of a human.

Of course, Barbara is another level.

Eli and Lily too.

I could say Yukihome and Amy are on the same level.

It's very comforting, almost like a warm blanket that won't let you go.

Her thighs were fat, so I clung to them as she rammed her whole being.

The one moaning more was me because inside her is fabulous.

To top it off she uses her tails.

Her tails are soft and despite being pure hair, they do not generate discomfort.

In fact, they tried to hug me.

I stretched forward and with that brought her leg to bend more.

She felt pleasure rather than discomfort.

We kissed.

My hips were really moving like those of an animal.

It felt more like we were mating rather than making love.

Unlike Cordelia, this lasted longer and then I let it all out on her.

Our tongues together unwilling to let go were proof of how good it felt.

When we finished, we withdrew our mouths and she asked.

"Can you still go on?"

This would be my fourth shot.

My body began to feel a pain, but my sensation of pain was no longer there.

It must be a psychological thing.

We kissed again as Cordelia who was looking off to the side, pouted.

"It's not fair that she gets to finish inside and I don't."

She was lying close to us.

Her breasts she was using as a pillow to put her weight on.

"I told you, it was a punishment."

But she answered me something that left me even more surprised.

"In that case my revenge is on them."

She pointed her finger to the side as she smiled sinfully.

Seeing where she pointed, I actually swallowed saliva for the first time.

I had only done it with three.

I had forgotten that he had five more girls.

Barbara was among them.

I found Celia, Lily and Evelyn lying down.

They were opening and touching their petals.

I could hear them calling out to me as saliva dripped from their mouths.

"Honey, it's unfair of you to ignore us."

"I want you to take me Razel-san."

"Razel-kun is very cruel to ignore us."

While at his side was a holy image.

"... Is this really a position he will like, mother?"

"Of course Eli. After finishing many times, we must encourage his manhood."

Eli was on top of her mother, raising her lower half.

With one hand she held her pendulous breasts so she could see her face which was touching her mother's forehead.

With the other hand she held herself so she wouldn't fall off.

While Barbara smiled as she opened that red entrance.

Unlike her daughter's which was pink, her mother's was red.

"R-Razel, be grateful to give you this mother-daughter service you want."

"Ufufu, I wonder how many husbands can have this luxury of savoring a mother and daughter?"

Barbara's bawdy tone showed she didn't care what level of low morals she represented.

So did I.

I could feel my returning sanity leaving again and my energy increasing.

But they weren't the only ones.

"Honey~."

Celes regained her spirits.

She placed her breasts to the side of my face.

"I got my energy back, I'm back in the mood to keep going."

But she wasn't the only one.

"My savior."

"Master."

Cordelia and Yukihome attacked me.

One from behind and the other from the front.

They weren't going to leave me alone.

But I would not give up.

I shouted heartily at them.

"I'll make them all climax!"

With those words, I grabbed these three again and hugged them.

The girls came up to me.

"That's not fair Razel."

"Razel-kun has favoritism for older women."

"Ufufu, how much manhood my husband has."

Cordelia started sucking Celes' breasts while I massaged Yukihome's.

"This is paradise!"

Christina returned with Livie after going out to eat.

She took off her clothes, revealing her slender and voluminous figure.

As she went outside to take a bath, she heard a strange sound.

"Yes~!"

She became alarmed thinking it was someone shouting.

Since she was a female knight of the empire.

Her duty was to help the people.

She crept closer to the wall that connected to the other room and there she was perplexed.

"H-H-H-Huh!"

She was watching Razel and his harem having fun.

Livie who had also changed, entered.

"Chris, you are really cruel to finish all the conditioner. My hair is natural and not artificial so you think these colors areâ"€"

She reached over and covered Livie's mouth.

The moaning sounds could be heard perfectly.

Christina said to Livie.

"P-Princess, we need to get out of here. Next door they're being intimate, so it would be bad for usâ"€"

"Wait!"

Instead of being alarmed, Livie said to the irrational one.

"You're saying that mob will take Elize-tan's purity!"

"I must bear witness to it!"

Livie removed Christina's hands and stepped closer to watch.

She wanted to stop her, but the sounds of happy women made her come closer too.

The two stood watching that.
