Well, now, dear readers.

We've reached the middle of the volume, this fanservice arc is a long one.

I took a long time with this one due to something I didn't tell you.

Just before I went almost blind, my Tablet was damaged.

I took care of it like a son, it was seven years old and I even celebrated its birthday.

One day out of the blue, it died.

I took it to the technician and he said that the processor burned, I went where there are Samsung spare parts and they told me that this model is listed as old (it is from 2015) so there should no longer be spare parts.

Of course, I am bad and I still am.

Putting aside the personal and teacher information like passwords I had on there.

There was ALL the material from my novels.

Characters, arcs, plot twists.

Now I'm writing everything from scratch, the worst thing is that there are many events that happened and I don't remember them anymore.

I'm trying to remember and save them in my laptop (it's from 2016, now don't tell me it's going to get damaged too, right?).

That's all I wanted to say, the next chapter will start to be about each girl with Razel until finally getting to Amy, which must have generated discomfort for you guys since she doesn't get love.

Will Christina be in the harem? No idea, only time will tell if her complex about her eyes won't take away her happiness.

Will Livie now want Razel's third leg? I doubt very much that she wants to have the emperor as father-in-law and Regulux as brother-in-law, having Cid as brother-in-law I believe, the others not.

Again I leave link of the pdf with the illustrations, if you have any problem of not being able to see it (which is rare) notify it:
<https://mega.nz/file/KlZiXTyY#pO1xLkdrzFHgpAUCTkYC37>

Christina and Livie were watching what Razel and his harem were doing.

It was certainly something a princess should not be watching.

Christina opened her eyes to observe everything.

Both, she and Livie were with their cheeks red as tomatoes.

Livie commented to Christina.

"C-Chris, is that what one looks like, is it normal for it to be that size?"

Christina trembling replied.

"I-I wouldn't know... I've never seen one before in my lifeâ”€ what do you make me say princess!"

Despite saying that, her eyes were not detached from what she saw.

"Razel!"

As much as Eli and the others were enjoying joining their bodies with Razel.

Christina heard something that made what she was seeing instantly replaced.

(He said he loves them.)

(He doesn't care what his wife looks like, race, or culture.)

(That means if he wanted to take me as one of his women. Wouldn't he mind seeing these eyes?)

Beside her was a puddle that splashed Livie.

In it was reflected Christina's face.

She could see how her eyeballs were black as night.

She shook her head at the idea she thought.

(Don't be silly Tina.)

(First of all, you are a sword saint.)

(Your marriage is something that involves the palace within.)

(That means you are just a tool, you can choose whoever you want as a partner, but that partner must be someone who belongs to the select circle of some minister.)

(The Rosenbergs™s have no voice since the dukes don't interfere in palace business.)

(Besides, do you really think that just because you heard that he doesn't care what his girl looks like, he won't mind looking you in the eye?)

(Hundreds of men have seen these wicked eyes so I'll keep looking for a man with bad taste and thus marry him off.)

Christina sent a glance down her body.

Her waist was slim and despite having a bit of muscle as in her limbs, she was still beautiful.

Her hips were large, with an ass that was extremely smooth to the touch due to the creams she uses.

Finally, those huge breasts that exceeded 100 centimeters.

Seeing Razel and her tastes, she thought she would qualify as a possible lover.

But her heart denies the possibility of anyone loving her so she will continue in her vague search for happiness.

Livie, on the other hand, just thought.

(I'm seeing that I could only see in videos on the internet.)

(Anyway, it's impressive what an uncensored one looks like.)

(I always thought they were actually all kind of mosaic-like.)

â—†

I made sure to use my hands to satisfy Yukihome, Celes and Cordelia.

They wanted to receive my love again, but the others were missing from doing so.

As I carefully laid them down on a towel on the floor, I approached Eli.

"Sorry to keep you waiting."

She looked at me with warm eyes.

"You've kept me waiting so long, hurry up."

She closed her eyes and spread her lips.

I kissed her.

The feeling of two not being able to kiss each other is gratifying.

Her tongue rolled with mine.

The kiss with Eli was wonderful, our hands moved touching our bodies.

She was touching every part of mine

Including my gluteus.

I was also doing the same with her.

A woman's body was so soft, silky and most of all plump.

The flesh of her ass was buried in the spaces of my fingers.

As with her breasts, her ass was big.

I lost myself in it, not wanting to stop touching it.

"Razel-kun, don't ignore me."

Beside me almost crying was Lily pouting.

I removed one of my hands to hug her now.

"Let me make you feel good."

The kiss with Lily was the best thing too.

If kissing Eli felt like biting into a strawberry, Lily's mouth felt like blackberry shortbread.

Lily's body was smaller than Eli's, but it was much fluffier just the same.

The feel of both of their butts is comparable to things I remember.

Eli's is just like a pillow, soft and ample.

While Lily's is springy and hard as a balloon.

After massaging the bottom, I went to the front.

I wanted to taste those fruits.

We knelt down and they spread their breasts.

"Razel, help yourself."

"It is our duty to feed you."

Their breasts were perfect.

It reminds me of snowy desserts.

With the cherry cream making the glistening nipple.

I bit Lily's first.

"Ahhnnnnn!"

She let out a scream that could be mistaken for a moan.

Or it was a moan in the form of a scream.

I didn't care.

I started biting, licking and sucking on her nipples, they were really tasty.

As I looked up, I could see Eli watching me like a little girl looking at a piece of candy she wants.

I took my mouth off Lily's breasts and aggressively attacked Eli's.

"Hyan!"

She let out an adorable scream, I bit one of her nipples while I played with my fingers with the other pretending it was a stereo.

I was turning the volume up and down.

Eli moaned as she pressed my head to her breast.

My face totally caved in, I couldn't breathe, but I didn't stop.

"Raaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaazeeeeeeeeeeeeeeel!"

She screamed as she lost strength in her legs.

That means I made her climax.

Good, I've gotten better at my lady touching skills.

Now let's go to Lily.

She looked at me and wondered what I was going to do to her, I grabbed her and turned her around.

From behind I grabbed her breasts.

"Ahh!"

Lily watched me as I squeezed her breasts and played with her nipples.

The feel of my fingers digging into her soft skin made me feel more eager.

I rubbed my rod against her soft ass.

"Kyah."

She let out an adorable squeal.

As expected from the heroine of an otome game, she really is lovely.

I didn't want to stop, but she wasn't the only one.

I left Lily to go play with the others.

I saw Celia trying to touch her intimate part.

As I got closer I kissed her.

As our tongues rolled around I said to her.

"Soon I will give you what you want so badly."

"Hurry, I can't hold on."

Evelyn next to me placed a towel on the floor.

How many towels are?

We lay down, but not the way anyone expected.

I was on the towel and she lay on top of me.

Her huge ass was over my face.

Near my nose was her beautiful pink petal.

While she was near my rod.

Celia commented to me as she tried to look at my face.

"Hey, if you're such a breast freak, why do you like touching my butt so much?"

I answered wholeheartedly.

"I like to touch it. It's soft and big as a peach."

"I've never seen such a big peach in my life."

She laughed at my honest answer.

"Hahaha, what's up with that answer? It's pretty weird hahaha."

Despite laughing, she didn't take her eyes off my rod.

"Although well, for the first time I've had one of these on my face, it's really impressive. I must certainly say you were blessed by the goddess with a fine tool."

(I'd rather have been reincarnated in a harmless world where I'd spend my time picking apples than fearing the demon king.)

Paying no mind to what she said, I proceeded to lick that petal.

I could feel her shudder, as if an electric current was passing through her body.

My tongue licked her lips, I could feel her hair touching my face, but I didn't give it any importance.

Little by little I used my fingers to open her petals so I could lick everything.

Even her bean occasionally did.

While she used her mouth to satisfy my rod.

The sensation was magnificent, I could feel a current pass from my head to my bottom.

I made sure to push her hips to get it all the way into her mouth, while I squeezed her ass hard.

I didn't notice Evelyn rubbing my head, she seemed to want it to be her turn already.

I couldn't leave her wanting, so I carefully removed Celia from me.

"Hey, I haven't climaxed yet."

That made me feel bad, but I must make everyone happy.

As I approached Evelyn and was about to kiss her, she did something weird.

She grabbed her breast and pulled her nipple into her own mouth.

"...!"

I was shocked as I watched her suck on her own nipple.

It was an obscene and glorious sight.

I asked as I saw her let go of her chest, causing it to slap against her skin.

Generating the same sound, a hand hitting a back makes.

When she removed her hand.

"Is that some fetish of yours?"

As always, her face was serious, her answer too.

"I wanted to check why you are so interested in tasting women's mammary glands. I don't understand it, so I gather it must be something internal to you."

As usual, she said something I failed to understand, but I replied what I think she said.

"I just like them. Like you, that doesn't need much explanation."

"It's weird that for me."

She came up to me and entwined her arms behind my head.

"There are things I still don't understand, but what I do know, is that my body for some reason enjoys us doing this."

Evelyn kissed me.

Her kiss felt cold, but in the same way it felt warm.

Like eating ice cream on a hot day.

We kissed passionately, I didn't want to take my tongue off of Evelyn's.

But she stopped kissing me and moved down to my shaft.

There she decided to play dirty.

"This is weird for me too, but if you like it I'm fine with it."

She used her breasts to bury my rod, while she licked my nipple.

"Razel-san, do you like it?"

Evelyn massaged my rod with her big breasts.

The feeling was magnificent, I really want to stop thinking and just let myself go and do everything I want to her.

"Are you having fun?"

A voice spoke to the back of my head, as I turned to see who it was, something hit me real hard.

It was breasts, and they were heavy.

I lifted the breasts and could see her face.

"Darling, are you having fun?"

Barbara was looking down on me from above.

I could see part of her face through her gigantic breasts.

She was smiling at me, the kind of smile a mother would give her child.

But on her it's an obscene smile.

She slid her breasts out for me to use as a pillow.

The pressure was just like when two pillows squeeze you.

Gentle but intense.

She talked to me while Evelyn made sure to make me release everything.

"How did you like your fake honeymoon present?"

"Wonderful."

I would reply as Evelyn attacked me from underneath and Barbara rubbed my head with her breasts.

She giggled at the sight of my pleased face.

"I'm liking this too. Watching my man go out of his way to please his other women makes me both jealous and happy."

Barbara was so happy, she said.

"Evelyn-chan, let me do it now."

Evelyn looked at her and stopped using her breasts.

Barbara turned around, we were facing each other.

Celia brought the couch over along with Eli, I sat down.

I was about to explode, my head was throbbing so much it felt like the mouth of a sealed volcano which wanted to erupt.

Barbara slowly lifted her breasts, tempting me with them, purposely raising and lowering them so as not to touch me.

Her eyes revealed to me that she was doing it on purpose, but after a while...

"Enough of the games, it's time for real action."

Barbara slid her breasts in and buried it fully.

At that moment, I felt my body and brain disconnect from reality.

I could see a dark place for a moment.

That was the feeling of dying.

These breasts felt so good that they could kill me just by inserting my rod into them.

I clung to the couch.

The girls were positioned next to me.

Lily on top of me, Evelyn and Celia to the sides and Eli near her mother.

Everyone's gazes were focused on how Barbara covered my rod with her breasts, it was no longer visible.

But even if I couldn't see it, I could feel it and no doubt I was being crushed by the huge masses.

The description was unimaginable, but if I could compare it.

It would be like sticking your hand in bread dough.

It's so soft that you sink in when you make contact, but when you try to pull it out you can't.

It sucks you in.

That's what her breasts feel like.

Eli commented as she watched her mother torture me with pleasure.

"Guh, Razel, stop making that face just because my mother is making you happy."

"Fufufufu, Eli, if you have my blood, your breasts can be this size and be able to please him all day long."

"... I feel like I don't know how to answer that, but if Razel wants to."

The talk of how Eli could have breasts this big in the future while her mother punishes me is something that keeps me from thinking.

The girls would say to me.

"Cheer up,"

"You can do it."

"Hang in there."

But despite that, the watermelon-sized breasts won me over.

"Gah! I can't help it!"

With those words I didn't last a second before lifting my hips and sending it all inside Barbara.

I could feel the contractions causing my hips to be lifted.

It felt so good, I could die now and not give a damn.

"It's splendid. Despite finishing several times there is still such a quantity coming out, you really are quite the man."

Barbara said after opening her breasts and looking at the white clamminess on them.

I wanted to close my eyes and sleep, but they wouldn't allow it.

Barbara placed it in her mouth.

A swirl of pleasure embraced me.

She played with the lower part of the rod, massaging them in such a way that despite no longer feeling like getting up again, she managed to get it up.

Barbara reached up and took the tip.

She was going to lower her hips to devour it.

Before she devoured him, she said to me.

"Let's close the cycle of lying."

Slowly she was going inside and finally.

"And open a new one like love."

Barbara devoured me.

"Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!"

She screamed as she devoured my rod, I tried to hug her because of the great and perfect feeling I felt now.

She looked at me with a complicated face as she held onto me.

"This is... proof that having a harem is a must in body and soul!"

I began to penetrate her insides in the same way a construction worker hits a wall.

But faster and more intense.

I could hear perfectly the sound of her ass hitting my bottom.

Because of the vibrations it must be waving like a flag.

I mean, that butt is being punished as it should be.

I looked at Barbara as my rod getting bigger and bigger inside her again gave her happiness.

She was trying to avoid making a face that indicated what an obscene mother she was.

But I want to see that face.

I gave her harder, I could feel the muscles in my thighs clench so hard that I was in pain.

But I must bring her to climax.

Barbara's eyes were looking up as her mouth opened to release more intense moans.

"This is rich! Very rich! Darling don't stop and make me yours!"

Barbara really was a succubus.

She was the perfect combination of a refined woman and a pervert.

We were kissing as I stirred her insides with my rod.

I couldn't hold it any longer, unable to say anything to her I released my seed inside.

I was already pregnant with my child so this doesn't matter.

"Mmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm!"

I could feel her squeezing me inside her along with her limbs very tightly.

That was the climax of a woman over forty.

It was a sensation that made me feel weak again.

I walked over to the couch and left her comfortably there.

I looked at Yukihome, Cordelia and Celes still resting.

Four girls go, four more to go.

I turned to see them, and I observed that they couldn't wait any longer.

On one side were Evelyn and Celia on top of each other.

And on the other end were Lily and Eli with their cat ears on all fours.

Their breasts were hanging down and their butts were in the air.

It was a divine picture no doubt.

"Excuse me."

I said to those two, so I went for the second duo.

Without giving them a chance I inserted it inside Evelyn.

"...!"

She wanted to make a sound, but because I shoved it in all at once, it left her unresponsive.

I bent my body a little and began to be a little aggressive with her.

She bent her top down, her breasts with Celia's were touching.

She was liking it and that she wasn't moaning.

I pulled it out and then went for Celia.

"Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah!"

She did moan loudly when I put it in.

Unlike Evelyn, Celia's insides are very tight.

It's due to all the training she does.

Whereas Evelyn's inside was just like sticking a finger in an ice cold drink which then warms up.

I made an exchange, but I didn't want to stop.

But I did in the end.

I pulled it out of both of them and immediately went to the main girls in my harem.

I stood Lily up and then turned her around, bent her body a little, Lily is very obedient.

Maybe it's because of her face that she keeps looking at me while waiting for something.

Eli got on my back, I took Lily's arms.

And I drilled to the deepest part of her being.

"Haaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah!"

Without Lily being able to do something, I started ramming her insides with the full power of my hips.

This made her soft ass ripple from the force with which I was giving it to her.

I didn't want to stop, the inside like Lily's skin was soft and only made my hips move with intensity.

Eli behind me asked Lily.

"Lily-chan, are you feeling okay?"

Lily couldn't answer because she only let out moans.

She was so into pleasure that she didn't realize she stuck out her tongue and was releasing saliva.

I decided to finish her off so the heroine wouldn't show that expression.

I released a little inside Lily.

Apparently I can stop my desire to finish if I use magic power to generate electricity and stop my muscles.

It was still numb, but that made it firmer.

I let Lily rest and said to Eli.

"Get on top of me."

She didn't hesitate to oblige.

I lay down and she got on top of me.

"Hyaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah!"

Eli started moaning, but like a cat, it was weird and cute at the same time.

Using the strength of my legs and stomach, I got my hips to move and used all my power to get all the way to Eli's baby's room.

She was happy, this really was happiness.

Since she will be my wife, she takes priority over anything.

I love you Eli.

I love you all.

"R-Razel... it feels good...I love it... don't stop...

The movement of Eli's hips only made the sensation more and more glorious.

I can't help it, it feels fabulous.

But having my bottom numb is bad, I could end up killing that place.

"Sorry Eli."

I relaxed my muscles and at that moment everything was released inside Eli.

"It feels so goood!"

The feeling was so magnificent that I couldn't stop myself.

I released so much, maybe this will make her end up pregnant.

Whistling

"That was... amazing."

Releasing it, Eli stood up and went to Lily's side, fell to her knees and then used her hands to expand her petal.

Lily also did the same.

"Hehe, there's a lot."

"Razel~ look how much you let out."

Oh no, this is bad.

I checked my lower part and this one was rising again.

Hey, don't do that anymore.

I'll feel like I'll really die if you do it.

But they attacked me relentlessly.

Lily stood up and then I noticed Celia and Evelyn approaching.

Eli lay down to rest for a moment.

I was thrown to the floor and the three of them began to lick my rod.

"Gaaaaah!"

I let out this slight moan of pleasure and pain as my body was reaching its limit.

Evelyn was in charge of devouring my twins.

While the trunk was savored by Celia.

Leaving the head for Lily.

This was heaven, but truly my body must stop.

â—†

"Ahhhh!"

I've lost count of how many times I've been doing it.

Nor how many times I thought I saw someone spying on us, two people in fact, but my head is spinning.

Now I'm doing it with Cordelia who is on top of me.

Celes is helping her jump up and down so she can get deep inside me.

When I least expected it, I ended up inside her again.

Cordelia's insides were slimy, I could feel my essence inside overflowing in full.

When I pulled out, Celes put it in her mouth.

Minutes passed and it got big again.

This time it was Yukihome's turn to climb on top of me.

I took her arms and started to give it to her with more power than before.

I wanted to finish this, with all of them and rest.

Celes fondled those huge breasts and played with her nipples.

Yukihime's breasts were so big that even Barbara joined in to lift them.

They both proceeded to devour Yukihime's nipples.

The sweet sound she was making combined with the orchestra below only made me speed up.

And in a few seconds I was done.

Both my chest and ass began to ache, like when you get a blow and it knocks the wind out of you.

I want to finish.

How much longer?

â—†

"Razel-san!"

"Honey!"

Truth be told, at this point.

I don't care about anything anymore.

I was switching back and forth between Celia and Evelyn.

I flipped Celia over and gave that ass everything.

Then I flipped Evelyn on her back and gave it to her too.

I couldn't remember when was the last time I had a break.

That's what I thought as I lifted Evelyn's legs to release it.

"Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah!"

She screamed in pleasure, she wasn't the only one as I immediately moved towards Celia.

I spanked that huge ass several times to speed up the climax process.

It seems I discovered her weak spot as it didn't take long, too long.

It was really stimulating.

I can't feel my hands anymore, though.

â—†

"Razel-kun..."

I was now giving my love to Lily.

Fortunately, the others seem to have given up already, their pleasurable faces say that I achieved my goal.

Only the main women of the Rosenberg family are left.

I also see blurry out of one eye and sometimes feel throbbing in my thighs and back.

I didn't think anything of it.

I gave all my attention to satisfying Lily.

We kissed as we joined our bodies together without separating.

The feeling... I couldn't feel it.

It felt good no doubt.

But right now it felt like tasting a sheet of paper.

That's why I'm remembering the feeling of it so this moment isn't weird.

"I can't take it anymore, I'm done!"

Lily shouted as everything flowed inside her.

I stayed for a moment entwined with her.

I was resting for a moment.

Like when a boxer has less than ten seconds to avoid being disqualified when he falls to the canvas.

Lily showed she was so happy she fell asleep instantly, I laid her down on a nearby towel.

Now, on to the final bosses.

â—†

"Huh?"

I was asking myself that question.

My mind disconnected for a moment.

My body was attached to Eli's.

I don't remember what time this happened.

But I was inside her.

Eli's face showed how wonderful this moment was.

I think this is the first time in my life, well in my two lives, that I think just using my hand would be a nice thing to do.

Oh no, I thought like a coward.

Even though this pain in my chest supports me in what I say, I really want to finish.

"Raaaaazeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeel!"

That was the sound that indicated Eli was at his peak of happiness.

I released a lot inside Eli.

She was happy, mission accomplished.

I stood up, and found the dreaded final boss near the wall.

Her huge butt was pointing at me.

It looked like she was welcoming me.

I was slowly approaching, she saw me and said.

"Is something wrong darling?"

"... Can we do slowly?"

I asked her as this pain in my chest wouldn't go away.

She smiled and came closer to me.

She took my hand and we went to the last towel and lay down.

I hugged her.

My good mood was flaccid.

She didn't want to get up anymore.

I took the opportunity to rest.

While panting like a dog, Barbara said.

"I'm sorry about this."

"Sorry for what?"

I wanted to know what she was apologizing for.

"For all the bad things you've been through for us."

Without turning to look at me, she revealed things she was thinking.

"Ever since the duel, I always thought it was none of your business what happened to us."

"You had no real obligation to help us, but you did."

"That detail made me fall in love with you. Then came the other things you did, among them our talk about that affair and then the war game."

"You went to rescue Cordelia from those fellows. She evidently fell in love with you because of that, but even with that..."

She turned to look at me, her beautiful eyes moist with sadness.

"We're demanding you to be the man of the house."

"We really need someone to take this family forward, but this is a lot of responsibility for you alone."

"That's why, even if it's in this method, I want to support you."

"As a woman, as one of your wives, I want to lighten the load on your back."

"We all feel the same way. I'm sure that, in the future, one day you will have a load so heavy that you won't be able to bear it all by yourself."

"When that day comes. Trust us. Including me, I can do something."

"My blood may not be a Rosenberg, but my heart and womb belong to this family, I will fight for my family in my own way. And more so now that our child is growing inside me, he or she will be a healthy boy or girl, and will grow up with the love of a family that will take care of him or her."

"Sounds a bit childish for an old woman to say that doesn't it?"

As she finished hearing those words.

My lips moved to cover hers.

She touched her breasts as I moved so close that my rod began to rise.

It was a passionate kiss full of love.

After swirling our tongues I said to her.

"Don't be silly, I'm doing this because I want to."

"I never thought of you as an obligation. I was able to avoid the dueling problem and go off on my own, but I really didn't want to leave Eli alone."

"Nor did I when the war game happened. You are the most precious thing to me, that's why I will protect you, and now that you have my child it will be double the effort."

"Razel-kun... you are so wonderful!"

She kissed me again, my rod was starting to rise.

This talk made all the fatigue go away.

I feel as good as new.

This is my harem.

My family.

As the head of this family, I must protect them all.

"Razel~."

Eli and the others stood up, approaching.

They all rushed towards me.

It was an avalanche of women.

Truly, having a harem is a great unpaid labor.

And so I spent my false honeymoon that night.
